

COMMUNITY EVENTS

NEW IN MANHATTAN

Super Saturday Doubleheader

Feb. 1 at 12:30 p.m.
Madison Square Garden
In the first game, St. John's will take on Marquette in a Big East matchup while Michigan State (Big Ten) will take on Georgetown in the second game. $50-$185. thegarden.com

Ladies and Gentlemen... The Beatles!

Feb. 6-May 10
The New York Public Library for the Performing Arts
The exhibition covers the period from early 1964 through mid-1966—the years Beatlemania ran rampant in America. Free. nypl.org/locations/lpa

ENDING IN MANHATTAN

Winter Antiques Show

Jan. 24-Feb. 2
Park Avenue Armory
See and buy antiquities and antiques through the 1960s. Daily admission of $25 includes catalogue and benefits the East Side House Settlement, a community resource in the South Bronx. winterantiquesshow.com

Harlem Fine Arts Show

Jan. 29-Feb. 2
Riverside Church
One of the largest and most prestigious collections of works featuring African-American emerging and established artists from around the world. Day pass $15. Other pricing for events and lectures. hfas.org

VISUAL ARTS

NEW IN MANHATTAN

The Flowering of Edo Period Painting

Feb. 1-Sept. 7
Metropolitan Museum of Art
Displaying exemplary works from painting schools that arose in Japan in the 17th and 18th centuries, the exhibition will allow viewers to discover how Japanese painting evolved from the traditional modes of Chinese and Japanese styles. $12-$25 suggested. metmuseum.org

Elegance in an Age of Crisis:

Fashions of the 1930s
Feb. 7-April 19
Museum at Fashion Institute of Technology
Exhibit celebrates some of the most innovative and beautifully designed clothing despite a dire financial and political environment. Free. fitnyc.edu/3452.asp

American Folk Art from the Peter J. Solomon Family

Through Aug. 10
Metropolitan Museum of Art
Among the 20 objects on display—all of which were created from approximately 1770 to 1848—are paintings, works on paper, and furniture. $12-$25 suggested. metmuseum.org

ENDING IN MANHATTAN

Old Masters Drawings

Jan. 25-Feb. 1
Carlton Hobbs Gallery (60 East 93rd St.)
Jean-Luc Baroni Ltd. announces an exhibition of 55 rare and highly important old master paintings and drawings from the 16th to the early 20th centuries. Free. jlbaroni.com

Steven Assael: New Drawings

Through Feb. 1
Forum Gallery
Steven Assael. Born in 1957, Assael is now nationally recognized as one of the leading figurative artists of this generation. Exhibition includes 23 drawings of men and women. forumgallery.com

Leonardo da Vinci: Treasures from the Biblioteca Reale, Turin

Through Feb. 2
Morgan Library & Museum
For the first time in New York, the Morgan presents Leonardo da Vinci's extraordinary Codex on the Flight of Birds and a selection of drawings by da Vinci and his followers. This exceptional group of works is on loan from the Biblioteca Reale in Turin. $12-$18. themorgan.org

An American Style: Global Sources for New York Textile and Fashion Design

Through Feb. 2
Bard Graduate Center Gallery, 18 W. 86th St.
An ethnographic collection that curators opened up to the American design industry in 1915 in the hopes of fostering a truly American style. $5-$7. Admission free Thursday after 5 p.m. bgc.bard.edu

ENDING ELSEWHERE

War/Photography

Through Feb. 2
Brooklyn Museum
The exhibit explores the experience of war with an unprecedented collection of 400 photographic prints, books, magazines, albums, and camera equipment. $8-$12. brooklynmuseum.org

PERFORMING ARTS

NEW IN MANHATTAN

All Balanchine

Feb. 1 matinee
David H. Koch Theater
Featuring "Concerto Barocco," "Kammermusik No. 2," and "Who Cares?" nycballet.com

Balanchine & Robbins: Masters at Work

Feb. 1 at 8 p.m.
David H. Koch Theater

MICAELA ROSSATO/METROPOLITAN OPERA

Prince Igor

Ildar Abdrazakov as Prince Igor Svyatoslavich in Borodin's "Prince Igor." A psychological journey through the mind of its conflicted hero, with the founding of the Russian nation as the backdrop. Feb. 6-Mar. 8 at The Metropolitan Opera. metopera.org

Featuring "Dances at a Gathering," and "Union Jack." nycballet.com

On the Bowery (1957)

Feb. 3 at 2:30 p.m.
New York Public Library for the Performing Arts
During this Oscar season, join us for a retrospective look at past winners and nominees in the categories of documentaries and short subjects. Free. nypl.org/locations/lpa

Scenic Delight

Feb. 4, 8, 12, 27, 28
David H. Koch Theater
Featuring "Bal de Couture," "DGV: Danse à Grande Vitesse," and "The Four Seasons." nycballet.com

All the Way

Previews begin Feb. 10
Neil Simon Theatre
A new play about a pivotal moment in American history that stars Bryan Cranston as LBJ. From Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Robert Schenkkan. allthewaybroadway.com

The Open House

Performances begin Feb. 11
Signature Theatre
Do families ever change, and can plays about families ever answer that question? Play by Will Eno. Directed by Oliver Butler. $25 tickets available for performances thru March 23. signaturetheatre.org

ENDING IN MANHATTAN

New Combinations

Jan. 31, Feb. 5, 8, 11
David H. Koch Theater
"Vespro," "Spectral Evidence," and the world premiere of "New Scarlett" from the New York City Ballet. nycballet.com

Krasnoyarsk National Dance Company of Siberia

Feb. 1 at 8 p.m.
Brooklyn Center for the Performing Arts at Brooklyn College
55 dancers and musicians incorporate colorful folkloric costumes, thrilling choreography, and an orchestra of national folk instruments as it celebrates the rich cultural heritage of Siberia. BrooklynCenterOnline.org

L'Elisir d'Amore

Through Feb. 1
The Metropolitan Opera
Anna Netrebko stars as Adina in Bartlett Sher's production of Donizetti's tender comedy. Ramón Vargas is her love-struck Nemorino, and Erwin Schrott sings the likeable quack Dulcamara, whose "magic" potion causes as many problems as it solves. metopera.org

The Twelfth Night & Richard III

Through Feb. 2
The Belasco Theatre (111 West 44th Street)
Two of The Bard's finest plays are performed in repertory by a remarkable cast featuring Stephen Fry. Tickets start at $25. shakespearebroadway.com

Here Be Sirens

Through Feb. 2
Dixon Place (161A Chrystie St.)
Morningside Opera blends music, screwball comedy, and Aristotelian tragedy to present the mythological sirens as real beings as they try to croon their way off the island. $15-$25. morningsideopera.com

ENDING ELSEWHERE

King Lear

Through Feb. 9
BAM Harvey Theater
Tony Award-winning and Oscar-nominated actor Frank Langella takes on King Lear. Langella joins forces with Britain's Olivier Award-winning company Chichester Festival Theatre. Full-price tickets $25-125. bam.org

MUSIC

NEW IN MANHATTAN

Vienna and Paris

Feb. 1 at 2:30 p.m.
The New York Public Library for the Performing Arts
Raj Bhimani, pianist, performs works by Beethoven, Franck, Ravel, and Roussel. Free. nypl.org/locations/lpa

Nordic Voices

Feb. 2 at 7:30 p.m.
Carnegie Hall; Weill Recital Hall
The six-voice a cappella ensemble performs repertoire ranging from new commissioned works by leading Norwegian composers to sacred texts. $50. carnegiehall.org

The Philadelphia Orchestra

Feb. 3 at 8 p.m.
Carnegie Hall; Stern Auditorium / Perelman Stage
The Philadelphia Orchestra under the direction of its music director Yannick Nézet-Séguin performs two Czech masterpieces and an electrifying piano concerto. $20-$120. carnegiehall.org

The Haden Triplets

Feb. 4 at 7:30 p.m.
David Rubenstein Atrium at Lincoln Center
Influenced by Billie Holiday, Keith Jarrett, Ornette Coleman, and the Yiddish folk songs of their youth, this trio expands on America's musical tradition. Free. lincolncenter.org atrium

Freiburg Baroque Orchestra

Feb. 5 at 7:30 p.m.
Alice Tully Hall, Starr Theater
The Gramophone Award-winning Freiburg Baroque Orchestra returns to perform Bach's complete Brandenburg Concertos. lcgreatperformers.org

Eloquent Masterworks

Feb. 7 at 7:30 p.m.
Alice Tully Hall, Starr Theater
As the Classical period blossomed, The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center present Beethoven, Mendelssohn, and Schubert. $37-$70. chambermusicsociety.org

Arctic Monkeys ft. Deerhunter

Feb. 8 at 8 p.m.
Madison Square Garden
Arctic Monkeys is an English indie rock band. Their debut album became the fastest-selling debut album in British music history. $30-$49.50. thegarden.com

ENDING IN MANHATTAN

American Symphony Orchestra: This England

Jan. 31 at 8 p.m.
Stern Auditorium, Perelman Stage
The American Symphony Orchestra reveals an explosion of creative energy in early 20th-century British music by highlighting works by some of the first modern British composers. $12.50-$50. carnegiehall.org

NEW ELSEWHERE

Israeli pianist Roman Rabinovich

Israeli pianist Roman Rabinovich
Feb. 6 at 8 p.m.
Lehman Center for the Performing Arts, Bronx
Rabinovich will perform Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto No. 1 with the Haifa Symphony Orchestra for its U.S. debut. $25-$75. lehmancenter.org

America's Romance with Chocolate: A Sweet Social History

Culinary historian Cathy Kaufman will present an illustrated lecture followed by a tasting in our period kitchen of handmade chocolate truffles. $40 or $75 per couple to benefit the Historic Furnishings Plan restoration. Feb. 4 at 6:30 p.m. at Merchant's House Museum. merchantshouse.org/calendar